

Culture Days in Fuglafjørður

5 - 7 September 2025

Friday 5 September

- 11.00–17.30 Ribarhús The historic shop with local handicrafts and a gallery exhibition. The coffee shop has poke bowls for lunch and delicious cakes later
- 16.00–18.00 Hjallurin (the park) The outdoor café has ice cream and waffles
- 16.00–18.00 The Boat Museum A selection of old boats and fishery equipment
- 17.00 The Culture House Square Opening of the Culture Days with speech, brass band and choir
- 17.00–20.00 The Bank Pop-up Artisan's & Creative Market
- 17.00–22.00 The Culture House Pop-up restaurant with Faroese produce and good wine
- 18.00–24.00 The Culture House (upstairs) Pop-up whiskey, rum and cigar bar
- 19.00 The Culture House Concert with the band Enekk (tickets at mh.fo)
- 19.45 etasjan Bar Watch the match Faroe Islands v Croatia on the big screen
- 21.00–02.00 Hjallurin The outdoor café turns into a pop-up Mojito bar
- 20.30–22.30 The School Yard Pop-up bar for the Swimming Pool Concert
- 21.30–22.00 The Swimming Pool Concert with the band Lyon at a unique venue
- 22.00 etasjan Bar Pub quiz and live music with Kim Hansen
- 22.00 The Umbrella Street The troubadour Sámal Ravnsfjall sings his popular songs
- 23.00 The Umbrella Street Sing-along event with Sámal, Njal and accordions

Saturday 6 September

- 10.00 The Beach Cold-water swimming with the locals
- 11.00 Hjallurin (the park) The outdoor café sells ice cream and waffles
- 11.00–14.00 The Culture House Square Local food market with stalls, selling local produce, and producers offering samples
- 12.00–13.00 The Beach Try-a-Triathlon challenge, the 'Snarathlon,' for anyone. Sign up for the challenge at 10.30 at Pitsa 530
- 12.00–14.00 The Culture House Pop-up restaurant with Faroese produce and good wine
- 12.00–20.00 Ribarhús The historic shop with local handicrafts and a gallery exhibition. The new piano is open for those who wish to play a good melody

Culture Days in Fuglafjørður

5 - 7 September 2025

Saturday 6 Sept (continued)

- 12.00–18.00 The Park Visit the Viking village and the Scouts' carroussel
- 13.00 The local go-cart race takes place from Gjógvará river to the centre
- 13.30–24.00 The Culture House (upstairs) Pop-up whiskey, rum and cigar bar with exhibition
- 14.00–18.00 The Boat Museum A selection of old boats and equipment
- 14.00–18.00 The Vintage Car Collection is open with easy grill food menu
- 14.00–20.00 Ribarthús The coffee shop is open with delicious cakes
- 15.00 Ribarthús The Silvitni women's choir will perform
- 15.00–17.30 The Fisherman's Cottage Visit this historic house in the park
- 15.00–20.00 The Bank Pop-up Artisan's & Creative Market
- 17.00–22.00 The Culture House Pop-up restaurant with Faroese produce and good wine
- 18.00 Restaurant Muntra The highly praised Faroese film 'The Last Paradise on Earth' is shown in an events-room
- 20.00–02.00 The Culture House Concert night with Danny & the Veetos, Bárður á Lakjuni, Døgg Nónsgjógv og Bolstad (tickets at mh.fo)
- 21.00 Restaurant Muntra The highly praised Faroese film 'The Last Paradise on Earth' is shown in an events-room
- 22.00–03.45 The tent below Ribarthús 80s disco night and bar
- 23.00 etasjan Live music

Sunday 7 September

- 11.00 The Church Sermon, Anne Mette G Klemensen, and local choir sings
- 13.00 Hjallurin (the park) The outdoor café sells ice cream and waffles
- 12.00–20.00 Ribarthús The historic shop: local handicrafts, coffee shop, and gallery exhibition. The piano is open if you wish to play a good melody
- 14.00–18.00 The Vintage Car Collection is open with easy grill food menu
- 15.00 Ribarthús Kalas, a folk music group of young women, performs
- 15.00–17.00 The Boat Museum A selection of old boats and equipment
- 15.00 Ribarthús Lanterna, the local gospel choir, sings in the gallery